OUR BARGAIN MONTH

Thinking that perhaps you would rather have the real money as a premium than some prize or foreign paper that you do not want, we take the following method of boosting our circulation and will, during the month of August, offer these inducements.

We will credit all new subscribers, who send or bring their money during this month with subscription at the rate of 50 cents a year.

We will credit on all back subscription paid up at the rate of 75 cents a year. That paid in advance 50 cents a year as in the case of new subscribers.

Remember that this offer is for on month only. Don't put it off but "Do it now."

If the young man who has been suffering with poison oak needs a nurse we can tell him where he get one we heard her father say he could spare his daughter.

We don't know of a melon patch in Keith but there surely is plenty throughout the country the way the melons are piled up around the grocery stores.

If "Gabe" eats dinner with all the Rich Hill people at the picnic next Thursday he will certainly have enough to eat one time for we understand there will be a big crowd from there.

Rev. A. G. Keast, of Rich Hill who has been holding a revival meeting at Reavley church the past three weeks intended closing the meeting Sunday night. There were 8 conversions.

We welcome the new correspondents to the Tribune, "Violet and Garnet," also glad to see Plow Boy take up the pencil again, we said pencil for we know from experience that the correspondents never use pen and ink, and the Bellamy letter was interesting, we are always glad to hear from our old neighbor C. A. Bird.

Miss Ella Ains ye scribe spent Tuesday visiting Misses Irene and Olive Rees near Arthur Fine prospects are for corn and they have hay to give away for the cutting. One farmer said he had a lot of upland hay given to him and he gave it to his neighbor. We saw big orchards along the way and not an apple on the trees while other orchards would have a few apples; but will tell about the big patch the finest vines and the biggest patch we ever saw, the hedge along the road was about 4 ft. high and the pumpkin vines covered the hedge and looked like they were going to cross the road. We started early in the morning and returned in the cool of the evening and with such a pleasant visit at Mr. Rees' it was an enjoyable day for Miss Ella and Narrow Escape.

Two of Our Citizens Narrowly Escape Death in a Runaway Accident.

S. C. Pettos and Harve Hutton were the victims of a runaway accident which occurred just across the track from the Mo-Pacific depot Monday morning about eight o'clock.

They were driving the team on Maple street when the horses became frightened at a train which was switching in the yards and ran away overturning the wagon and throwing the occupants to the ground.

Mr. Hutton who was caught under the wagon sustained a dislocated hip and a sprained back. Mr. Pettos received a bad cut on his arm and was badly scratched and bruised about the head and shoulders. Dr. Stuffer attended their injuries and they were removed to their homes.

Miss Fary Kithcart Dead.

The sad news reached here yesterday that Miss Fary Kithcart died at her home in Joplin at 6 o'clock Wednesday morning after a short illness of stomach trouble.

She was born in Rich Hill, May 30th, 1891 and was raised to maidenhood here. She united with the Presbyterian church a few years ago and was an active member in the Sunday School, Christian Endeavor and Ladies Missionary Society.

Deceased went to Joplin this spring to make that her future home. She would have entered the graduating class of the Joplin High School this fall. The bereaved relatives have the sympathy of a host of friends in their great sorrow.

MYERLEY The Jeweler

Killed at Worland.

John Baer, 20 years old, who lived near Worland, was killed at that place Sunday night about 11 o'clock by a Kansas City Southern train. He had gone to flag the train and went to sleep too near the track, was struck and so badly injured that he died next morning. Deceased was a young man of exemplary habits and a member of the Baptist church of Worland and his sad death is a great shock to the community.

The funeral services were preached by the Rev. T. A. Smith of this city, and interment was made in Independence cemetery three and one half miles east of Home.

His sorrowing relatives have the sympathy of all.

Fireman's Benefit.

The people of Rich Hill now an opportunity to help toward getting the fire department new apparatus. They are having a benefit at the Leader Electric Theatre this week. The small amount charged gives everybody a chance to help. We need the apparatus and now that something is being done toward getting it let's all help. Change of program daily. See their ad in this issue.

Card of Thanks.

To all those Dear, Kind friends who so kindly assisted us in the late sickness and death of our beloved Wife and Mother, we extend our most heartfelt thanks. The kind words of sympathy and the many beautiful floral offerings show to us the esteem in which she was held and is consolation to us in this our sad hour. Your kind words and deeds will ever be remembered. Respectfully, W. C. Stonebraker & Family.
